Premier League side Bolton Wanderers FC have signed England Under-21 midfielder Fabrice Muamba from relegated Birmingham City FC for a fee of just under €6.5m.

'Good grounding'

The 20-year-old, originally a trainee at Arsenal FC, has agreed a four-year deal with his new club, and is manager Gary Megson's first signing of the summer. "Fabrice is a tough-tackling central midfielder who has had a good grounding with the Arsenal youth set-up," said Megson, whose side finished 16th in the 20-team Premier League. "He'll be a tremendous asset to Bolton Wanderers over the coming seasons."
